Score Atlanta Inc.

Score Atlanta supplies condition monitoring systems and services for equipment used in Nuclear, Oil & Gas, and similar process industries worldwide.

Score Atlanta products include the V-Map; a continuous, comprehensive on-line data acquisition, and monitoring system for valves. In addition, we offer MIDAS Valve Leak Detection sensors and systems. These systems provide a complete range of acoustic emissions sensors and data acquisition hardware for monitoring piping, pressure vessels and other steel structures. A portable leak detection system is also available – the MIDAS Meter®.

Score Atlanta also provides on-line and field condition monitoring services, that assist customers with interpretation of test results, maintenance planning for corrective action and engineering required for permanent installation of condition monitoring sensors and systems.
